

Sperian Eye & Face Protection

INDUSTRIAL STRENGTH STYLE

Sperian® is the new name of the Willson® brand of safety eyewear, goggles, face shields and hard hats that offer substance as well as style. We at Sperian Protection know it can be all about the looks. When workers wear Sperian, they'll look good and stay safe. From construction and laboratory, to automotive, industrial and manufacturing, and even office applications, you'll find a full selection of products to suit your budget and employee preference.

Hard Working Price

Sperian safety eyewear is the affordable solution for your safety program. From new products to eyewear classics, Sperian has the right style of eye protection to fit the needs of workers, at the right price. And all Sperian products meet or exceed ANSI Z87+ (High Impact) safety standards, and many are certified CSA Z94.3. Take another look at the company that has been providing safety solutions and leading products for over 130 years.

Introducing the Sperian A900 Series of Safety Eyewear

Inspired by the latest trends in sunglass styles, this great looking eyewear series is sure to capture plenty of notice. Attention grabbing, sport styling, comfortable fit and lightweight frame make this affordable A900 Series a smart choice. The new series boasts not only distinctive styling, but also the fit and protection that will appeal to workers and safety managers alike.
