SAFETY EYEWEAR
THAT'S TOUGH AND
READY FOR ANYTHING.

Safety Eyewear That's Tough and Ready for Anything.

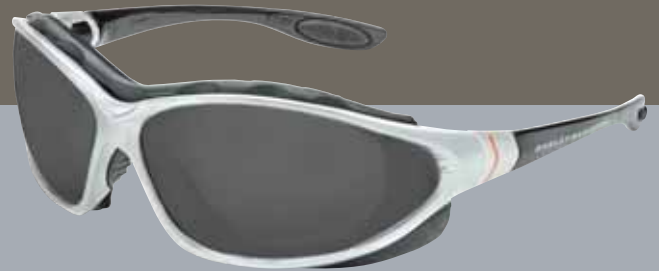

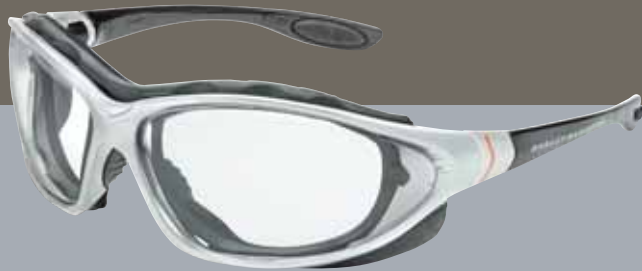

HD1300 SERIES SAFETY EYEWEAR

The HD1300 Series safety eyewear from Harley-Davidson[®] Personal Safety Wear provides protection in many of the toughest work environments. Interchangeable temples and headband strap, and removable cushioned subframe allow the wearer to switch from spectacle to sealed eyewear, depending on the particular job and hazards. Protect yourself from impact, sun, wind, dust and airborne debris. Perfect for down and dirty, high-particulate jobs such as grinding, chipping, shaving, and sanding.

The silver frame with black temples feature Harley-Davidson[®] logos and orange detailing and the black headband strap screams Harley[®] style with a large logo embroidered in white. Available in four lens tints for a wide variety of working conditions. Each pair of HD1300 eyewear includes a black microfiber cleaning cloth with the legendary Upswept Eagle logo, the perfect accessory to keep your eyewear looking new!

As tough as the HD1300 Series is, it incorporates many premium comfort features including soft and flexible nose pads, high-quality face cushioning, padded temple tips and an adjustable, flame-resistant headband. Meets ANSI Z87.1-2003 high impact standard for the American market and CSA Z94.3 for the Canadian market. (ANSI-certified for use with and without cushion-lined frame.)
